James Cunningham*

Good things seem to happen in twos for one of North America's fastest rising comedy stars, James Cunningham. He won the title of Campus Speaker two years in a row. His second hour-long comedy special recently aired nationwide on CTV and The Comedy Network.

James has recently spread his appeal south of the border. James has something for everyone. Combining clean material and killer charm, he has won over some of the toughest corporate and club audiences. No doubt, after watching him once, you will want to see him a second time.
